Hollywood goes GREEN for the EMMY's with H2Om Water Stars stay cool and get ready for the red carpet at the Ultimate Eco Lounge

Los Angeles, California – August 23rd – H2Om LLC, today unveiled details about their sponsorship of THE ULTIMATE GREEN ROOM an all eco living lounge for celebrities and EMMY nominees August 24th & 25th at the posh W HOTEL.

Since its launch February 14th, 2006, H2Om, the world's first natural spring water infused with the power of positive energy and intention has had an overwhelming response from celebrities, scientists, philanthropists and press worldwide. H2Om's revolutionary Vibration Hydration has changed the way people drink. Their distinctive slogan, "Think it while you Drink it!" inspires consumers to focus on the positive vibrations of Love and Perfect Health (the first two varieties offered) while they drink.

H2Om water is proud to sponsor an exclusive all GREEN event within the Hollywood film and television community. "Our water is not only about positive energy, but about creating awareness, education, and giving back to the planet," said founder Sandy Fox

Hollywood Stars and EMMY nominees will be pampered in organic style with massages, hair, make-up and spa services that are non-toxic and earth friendly from Naturopathica, Lavera, Pureology, Jane Iredale cosmetics and Eco Bliss Spa. Linda Loudermilk will be showcasing her exquisite Eco Couture and Jewelry crafted out of sumptuous bamboo silks and sustainable fabrics. Celebrities including Jeremy Piven, Kathy Najimy, Nick Carter, Isaiah Washington, and Sharon Lawrence will be there to relax with healing treatments and yoga while enjoying organic food and the luxurious amenities at the W HOTEL.

A fund raising raffle of elegant gifts and getaways will be held for the Children's Health Environmental Coalition & The Blue Butterfly Campaign, a national non-profit organization dedicated to educating the public, specifically parents and caregivers, about environmental toxins that affect children's health.

In alignment with its vision to work alongside non-profit organizations, H2Om water is dedicated to supporting events that inspire social and environmental awareness. Founders Sandy Fox and Lex Lang have been members of Social and Environmental Entrepreneurs for over six years, dedicating their creativity and business efforts to bettering the planet.

"It is very important to educate the public and bring awareness to the long term protection and enhancement of our natural environment. H2Om's mission is to send the powerful vibration of Love and Perfect Health out into the world while donating a portion of our profits to education and Earth healing charities," said co-founder and CEO Lex Lang.

A portion of H2Om's proceeds will benefit the International Water for Life Foundation, the Love Planet Foundation, and The Cousteau Society an environmental education organization dedicated to the protection of the planet for future generations.
